

Peter C. Young, Ph.D. occupies the E. W. Blanch, Sr. Chair in Risk Management at the University of St. Thomas College of Business. Professor Young has been a visiting professor to City University in London, Aoyama Gakuin University in Tokyo, and most recently at Glasgow Caledonian University in Scotland. Currently, he is an external scholar and senior advisor at the European Institute for Risk Management in Copenhagen, Denmark, and in that capacity is Managing Editor of Public Risk Forum, a magazine devoted to international public risk issues.

Dr. Young holds a Ph.D. in risk management from the University of Minnesota and a master's degree in public administration (state and local government) from the University of Nebraska-Omaha. He is considered a leading expert on risk management, particularly in public sector organizations. Professor Young has written four books and has been published extensively in academic and practitioner journals as well. In addition to his academic work, Dr. Young is a consultant to and advises numerous organizations in the insurance and risk management fields.