

Transport and Logistics SIG

First meeting – 8 November 2007, Highways Agency, Manchester

15 members and guests attended the inaugural meeting of the Transport and logistics SIG, hosted by the Highways Agency in Manchester

The delegates covered a wide range of interests, from transport operators, fleet managers, consultants and transport infrastructure providers, arguably including sources as well as managers of risk.

We heard presentations from :

SIG Chair John Stevens (RiskFrisk) on Implications of Corporate Manslaughter and Homicide Bill for 'transport'

Highways Agency analyst Geoff Richards spoke on Carbon Footprinting & Logistics

Gavin Astin of DNV concluded with a scary session on Aviation re-fuelling - risks

A brief round table discussion brought up a number of great ideas for future events.
