

Governance and Risk Standards

Institute of Risk Management – Perspectives on Social Responsibility

26 May 2022

David Adamson, Lead Standards Development Manager

British Standards Institution, Chiswick

David.adamson@bsigroup.com

Business Continuity and Crisis Management / Resilience	Governance	Risk Management
BS EN ISO 22301: 2012/ 2018 – Business Continuity Management	ISO 37000:2021 - Organizational Governance	BS ISO 31000: 2009/2018 – Risk Management
BS 25999: 2007	BS 13500:2013	BS 31100: 2011, 2018 and 2021
ISO 22361: 2022 Crisis Management	ISO 37001:2016 – Anti-bribery Management system
BS 11200: 2014	ISO 37002 - Whistleblowing	ISO 31050 – Emerging risk
PD CEN/TS 17091: 2018	New work – Modern Slavery (BS 25700) – due August 2022
BS 65000: 2014 – Organizational Resilience and 2022 as a CoP	New work - Safeguarding
ISO 22316: 2017	New work – Human Rights Due Diligence
	Starting: Anti-fraud

Getting involved

- There are a thousands of BS, ISO and European standards and hundreds of committees which may be of interest to you and your organisation, including ethics, sustainability, net zero, climate change, environment...
- BSI is the UK national standards body that is a big part of ISO, CEN, CEN/ELEC
- Please consider becoming a BSI committee member. It's voluntary
- BSI actively seeks a wide group of stakeholders / experts
- <https://www.bsigroup.com/en-GB/about-bsi/uk-national-standards-body/how-to-get-involved-with-standards/become-a-standards-maker/>